Dear Mr. Chesson, C149/153

I never felt more sorry hardly that I am not rich than yesterday for my heart longed to say - there is a cheque - use it in any way that you can for Mrs.
& take care not to overture yourself - for I know that people's inconsiderate acts how lack of money hinders one's hospitality tries me.
I don't think I told you that I had written to several rich persons at Longway abt. I was on Saturday. Now come three replies - one from the live in a good house next to the Duchess of Lutterland's place write to me that they will as fellow Christians gladly receive Major & Whores and George Skidmore and show them all care and hospitality until they go to Plymouth. But all if De Whores is they of going on a visit to them they would find lodgings suitable if I take up to them and had this I telegraphed to Mr. Ashbury at Brighton that my sick Quaker friends at Loyray were willing to show hospitality to Rowland and I begged Mr. Anthony to persuade De Wherry to accept their generous kindness. I also sent you a telegram as I had had a queer note written by the hotel for De Wherry saying that they wd. arrive Monday in London. Wilkin Frank & Widdows go to find Mr. Wilkin's hotel till we go to the ship. away to New Zealand. I send word and tell us then you can arrange for our photograph for we have none here to give you - but we hope to tell you De Wherry is well the Dr. not coming anywhere to tell him, I am glad we go you to New Zealand. "I don't not telegraph all this to you but I think my telegram ^{169/153a} will have made clear to you and let a new Joe's most kind hospitality.

a letter has also come from Mrs. Hapher & Keine who Mapleton House -
St. Luke's Hill -

Edgar says her husband is better than usual just now would go to Boston & meet Ted & see him daily at whichever hotel or lodgings Ted bears to get a job. Ted will be glad often to talk on his part if check him & that anything back it they can do they will gladly do for him & feel much for his and condition away from his tribe.

must persuade them to take them to their destination tomorrow or Wed if I will write her wordly get train they go to Foreway. As you see dear Mr. Chilton one way or another there would be 3 reliable good friends to call for DeWheats if he got made ill & the Frois are wealthy & would respect on my speaking would soon boardship & all DeWheats off. It would be far better than staying in London as he would have at Government House the comforts he had at Brighton. Perhaps DeWheats fears his money is being spent in illusive persons get panic about money.

Mr. Grace has not come either have I heard from her. Will write her to let her know if she does come - if she does not come I will write to her to come here to morrow to go with me to Wilkinson Street. See how much I get let by you as to the see him to morrow & all the travelling he does not need get travelling to pack & send off to Charley & David's care for J. S. Jones. Mr. Terry Nichols did all that sort of work for Cawthra I think. Excitement one ~~extra~~ ~~man~~ but is to for the wheat at market as cold to the huff. He must not feel any hurry - I suspect he says he is well - he feels consider that his acceptance of going to your Hotel Wray looks like being ill his need of care. If I had but able to I feel it.

is the rich. Ina Kedy's address.
It's on a hill - but would be worn throughout of the Torquay I understand the house & that house will be a good continuation of the out of care. De Wherry had had at Brighton - 2 foot long though right near all kinds with the Fox's who also are friends with Mr. Staphrokin do nothing could be better than on Wed for De Wherry & I'd like to go to Torquay & accept hospitality of these friendly people. I don't know but he told that they are related to the Fox's in New Zealand.

you to meet the two fellows I go with them to the hotel will stay - but I quite hope Mr. Ashbury & you will persuade him to go to day for it is a Yokel & the very thing by his blessing will to hear them ^{time} & enable him to bear the ^{substance} voyage on the at once as I had from you & the telegraph to Mr. J. Fox. I will write now to those people that will ^{not} arrive from Brighton don't say if they will go to
