Dear Mr. Chesson,
a note from Mr. Spencer tells me that the Marries will be leaving the end of this month or early in August - that being so I think I must on Monday go to London - my friends here are all removing to their country seat on Tuesday & I was to go with them for 3 weeks & then up to town to be wth the Marries for a week or two - but as the Wilton's house has met wth between Worcester & Malvern abt 5 miles from a station it seems awfully expensive ^(strength) ~~there~~ ^{1/2} ~~the~~ go with them on Monday only to stay there for a week.

So we decide that if I am to be the married I'll jump to London on Monday next.
We fuss all in hot haste but rely on yr kindness to find me a suitable lodging one has best say for one week or two. The requirements are 2 rooms on one floor & the drawing room ^{floor} will be the most airy because I shall not attempt any going out when once there. I'll remain in (I should come & see you if I could meet me at the station in London) my room until I left as its walking up steps is so tiresome.

But if such rooms could be procured I shall content myself with whatever is found only the room must not be on different floors & a tidy servant I'll be glad to find able to help me sundays. I can dress myself - but am sure to be very ready to go to bed by the time I arrive at the lodging. Mr. Spencer wrote me along letter of apologies for not having answered my greetings but said he had as time but the time occupied in writing his apologies wd. have written replies to all I have been wishing to know. It is notable that not having been obtained last time is startling after his of last week saying he was going to Durham the next day. I quite feel the matter ought to be done if one - if it can be managed I shall be truly grateful if you will secure me suitable lodgings - clean & quiet & with all the necessaries. I shall be very grateful to you. Mr. Wilson told me last evening of a harsh article in the Pall Mall about the married. I wish Mr. Wilson wrote an article in the 19th Century & that Mr. General put in a statement as to these men's standing & good behaviour into the Yugoslavia. I am sorry to have to give you so much trouble & to send them to you to you. Thanks for my note received & reply.

Yr obliged servant, C. Wake.
